From last week... Doctrine of the Word of God

The question of the accuracy and reliability of Scripture:

Inspiration: The doctrine that the Bible is a product of God's own revelation, as the Holy Spirit spoke to and through the Prophets and Apostles.

Canon: The list of books accepted as being God's inspired words to us, and so included in the Bible.

Infallibility: Without failing; completely adequate in accomplishing its goal and purpose.

Inerrancy: The belief that the Bible, as God's own words, must have been completely true and without error in any part in the original autographs.

Doctrine of the Word of God

The Canon of Scripture is now closed:

Do not add to what I command you and do not subtract from it, but keep the commands of the Lord your God that I give you. Deuteronomy 4:1-2

“Every word of God is flawless; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him. ⁶ Do not add to his words, or he will rebuke you and prove you a liar. Proverbs 30:5-6

I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this scroll: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to that person the plagues described in this scroll. ¹⁹ And if anyone takes words away from this scroll of prophecy, God will take away from that person any share in the tree of life and in the Holy City, which are described in this scroll. Rev. 22:18-19

Doctrine of the Word of God

The Canon of Scripture is now closed:

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, ² but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe. Hebrews 1:1-2
