Buddhism

- Founder: Siddhartha Gautama, “The Buddha” (“Enlightened One” of “Awakened One”)
- Major Traditions: Theravada, Mahayana (also Zen, Pure Land, Nichiren, Tibetan/Vajrayana, etc.)
- Locations: Thailand, China, Burma, Japan, East Asia, (global).
Buddhism – The Four Noble Truths

1. The Truth of Dukkha – all of life is suffering;

2. The Truth of the Origin of Dukkha – craving and clinging to pleasure and aversion to what is not pleasurable are the cause of all suffering and of samsara;

3. The Truth of the Cessation of Dukkha – putting an end to craving and clinging ends suffering, so rebirth, dissatisfaction, and redeath no longer arise;

4. The Truth of the Path Of Liberation from Dukkha – by following the Noble Eightfold Path.
Buddhism – The Noble Eightfold Path (or “Middle Way”)

1. Right View – accepting the Four Noble Truths.
2. Right Intention – right thoughts/aspirations.
5. Right Livelihood – no working with weapons, degradation, meat, intoxicants, poisons.
6. Right Effort – discipline thought, word & deed.
7. Right Mindfulness – being alert to all that affects us.
8. Right Concentration – right meditation.
Jainism

c. 500 BC

• Founder: Mahavira (last of 24 tirthankaras, or “spiritual teachers”)

• Major Traditions: Shvetambaras; Digambaras (“sky-clad” ascetics)

• Locations: Almost entirely in India.

• Holy Writings:
The Five Vows of Jainism

1. Ahiṃsā – nonviolence or non-injury.
2. Satya – truth; to always speak the truth.
3. Asteya – not stealing; do not take anything that is not willingly offered.
4. Brahmacharya – chastity for laymen and celibacy for Jain monks and nuns.
5. Aparigraha – non-possessiveness; non-materialism; non-attachment to objects, places and people.
The Practices of Jainism

1. Fasting – regularly, especially during festivals.

2. Meditation – or samayika, the goal of which is to achieve perfect calmness and an understanding of self, and shedding of one’s passions.

3. Monasticism – greatly encouraged and respected, Jain monasticism is extremely austere and ascetic, with monks and nuns having no homes or possessions, living only on whatever people offer them.
Sikhism
1499 AD

- Founder: Guru Nanak, first of Eleven Gurus. (Ten human gurus, 1469-1708)
- Major Traditions:
- Locations:
- Holy Writings: Guru Granth Sahib
Underlying Values of Sikhism

- Equality: All humans are equal before God – No discrimination is allowed.
- Personal right: Every person has a right to life but this is restricted and has certain duties – simple living is essential.
- Actions count: Salvation is obtained by one’s actions – good deeds, remembrance of God.
- Living a family life: To provide and nurture children for the perpetual benefit of creation.
- Sharing: It is encouraged to share and give to charity ten percent of one’s net earnings.
- Accept God’s will: Recognize happy events and miserable events as the will of God.
- The four truths of life: Truth, contentment, contemplation and Naam (in the name of God).
Beliefs of Sikhism

1. There is an all-pervading spirit – “God.”
2. Liberation (salvation) comes as spiritual union with the divine.
3. The physical world is an illusion.
4. The supreme purpose of human life is reconnection with the divine.
5. Singing of the glories of the Supreme One is the most effective form of divine communion.
7. Service & charitable action are required.
8. Justice and equality are paramount.
9. Respecting the authority of the Ten Gurus.
The “Five Ks” of Sikhism (“Kakkars” or “Items”)

1. Kesh: uncut hair
2. Kangha: a wooden comb
3. Kara: a metal bracelet
4. Kachera: a specific style of cotton undergarments
5. Kirpan: a strapped curved sword
